National Chengchi University Taiwan-Europe Connectivity Scholarship: Czech Republic, Academic Year 2021-2022

1 Purpose

The "Taiwan-Europe Connectivity Scholarship: Czech Republic" is hereby established under the direction of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to encourage outstanding European students to learn Mandarin and Taiwanese cultures in Taiwan, enhance bilateral academic and cultural exchanges, and deepen NCCU's renowned academic fields, such as Mandarin teaching, Sinology, Taiwan Studies, and Asian studies.

2 Eligibility

- 2.1 Students from NCCU's university-level partner schools or prospective partner schools in the Czech Republic, and of Czech nationality.
- 2.2 Those under the following criteria are not eligible:
 - 2.2.1 Those who possess overseas Chinese students' status, or hold a passport of R.O.C, Hong Kong, Macau, or People's Republic of China.
 - 2.2.2 Past recipients of the MOE Huayu Enrichment Scholarship or MOFA Taiwan Scholarship.
 - 2.2.3 Those concurrently receiving other scholarships from the Taiwan government or university scholarships or subsidies (including living expenses waivers).

3 Award Amount and Quota

- 3.1 The funding of this scholarship comes from the Ministry of Foreign Affair's Taiwan-Europe Connectivity Scholarship project. Five Czech students will be awarded with this scholarship each semester; however, the exact quota is subject to change, based on the number of applicants and the overall budget of the fiscal year.
- 3.2 The partner universities or non-partner universities shall nominate students who can show prospective proficiency in Mandarin or who major in teaching Chinese as a second language, Sinology, Taiwan studies, Asian studies, or other relevant fields.
- 3.3 The award amount is classified into three levels, according to the nominated student's Mandarin proficiency, field of study, and type of Mandarin course enrolled. The quota reserved for each level is subject to change, based on the number of applicants and the overall budget of the fiscal year.

- 3.3.1 NTD 25,000 per student per month. Students who take 3 or 12 hours (3 or 12 credits) Office of International Cooperation (OIC) Mandarin Chinese courses and enroll in teaching Chinese as a second language, Sinology, Taiwan studies, Asian studies, or other relevant fields.
- 3.3.2 NTD 20,000 per student per month. Students who take 12 hours (or 12 credits) of OIC Mandarin courses, or 15 hours (0 credits) of Mandarin courses at NCCU Chinese Language Center.
- 3.3.3 NTD 5,000 per student per month. Students who take 3 hours (or 3 credits) of OIC Mandarin course for exchange students.
- 3.4 The monthly calculation of the scholarship is based on whether any courses are taken within the month. The duration less than a month is still counted as a month.

4 Application and its Process

- 4.1 NCCU's university-level partner universities in the Czech Republic shall recommend outstanding students to apply for the scholarship during the nomination process. Students shall refer to the section "Required Documents for Application" in Annex 1 to create the application and may also submit other materials that may strengthen the application (i.e. TOCFL and HSK Scores) (optional).
- 4.2 For students of prospective partner universities, please refer to Annex 2 to create the application and submit other materials that may strengthen the application (i.e. TOCFL and HSK Scores) (optional).
- 4.3 The OIC and Chinese Language Center will review the application materials, respectively.
- 4.4 Once the list of recipients is approved, if a recipient chooses to decline the award before coming to Taiwan, the OIC shall select another recipient on the mailing list for the award.

5 Other Regulations

- 5.1 This scholarship will be allocated on a monthly basis after the recipient arrives on campus.
- 5.2 In the event of the following situations the scholarship will be suspended from the following month:
 - 5.2.1 Absent for a cumulation of 18 hours of class, for those taking the OIC 12-credit Mandarin course.
 - 5.2.2 Absent for a cumulation of 9 hours of class, for those taking the OIC 3-credit Mandarin course.
 - 5.2.3 Absent for more than 12 hours each month, for those taking classes at the Chinese Language Center.
- 5.3 If the recipient commits any of the following acts, the scholarship will be revoked:
 - 5.3.1 Staying in Taiwan for the purposes other than being an exchange student or a student learning Mandarin.
 - 5.3.2 Violating the laws of Taiwan that results in being suspended or expelled from the university.
 - 5.3.3 Concurrently receiving other scholarships from the Taiwan government or the university.
 - 5.3.4 Committing any other acts that are against certain related regulations of the university.
- 5.4 If the scholarship is suspended or revoked, the portions that had been paid out may need to be returned, on a case by case basis.
- 5.5 The scholarship recipient shall join the compulsory National Health Insurance if their scholarship period is over six months; if the period is less than six months, the recipient shall purchase their own health insurance that covers their stay in Taiwan.
- 5.6 Please refer to the NCCU Chinese Learning Center for tuition and fees.
- 5.7 This project shall be implemented under the guidelines and regulations of the Memorandum of Understanding between partner universities, NCCU Chinese Language Center, and the Ministry of Foreign Affair's "Taiwan-Europe Connectivity Scholarship: Czech Republic Project".
- 6 This project shall take effect after approval by the President. Any amendments shall follow the same procedure.
- 7 This project will be implemented for a temporary duration of one year, after the announcement has been made.
